DR. SEUSS'S THE CAT IN THE HAT - Tuesday, July 11th at 10:30 AM

Based on the Book by Theodor Geisel (Dr. Seuss)

Play Originally Produced by the National Theatre of Great Britain

Adapted and Originally Directed by Katie Mitchell

Presented through special arrangement with Music Theatre International (MTI).

From the moment his tall, red-and-white-striped hat appears around the door, Sally and her brother know that The Cat in the Hat is the funniest, most mischievous cat that they have ever met. With the trickiest of tricks and the craziest of ideas, he is certainly loads of fun. He turns a rainy afternoon into an amazing adventure... but what will mum find when she gets home...?

RED RIDING HOOD'S WOODS- Tuesday, July 18th at 10:30 AM

Little Red's mother has always been a bit overprotective of her daughter, but once she's old enough, it's time for Little Red to wander through the woods on her own. Encounters with a singing Postman, Three Little Pigs, The Butcher, The Baker, The Candlestick Maker, Granny and of course the Big Bad Wolf make interactive musical an entertaining treat for kids of all ages. A creative twist on a traditional tale!

PINOCCHIO- Tuesday, July 25th at 10:30 AM

Book and lyrics by Patty Carver

Music by Patty Carver and Leo P. Carusone

Based on the story by Carolo Collodi

Presented through special arrangement with Dramatic Publishing.

Meet the Blue Fairy as she leads us on a magical journey through this retelling of the classic story. One day, Geppetto, the poor, old toymaker, finds an extraordinary piece of talking wood. He brings it home and decides to make it into a puppet named Pinocchio. Disagreeable Pinocchio immediately gets into trouble and learns important lessons. When he bullies a little cricket, he's reminded to respect others. When he runs away, gets lost and tries to find his way home, he's reminded of the wonderful life he had with Geppetto. When Pinocchio decides he no longer wants to be a puppet but a real boy, the Blue Fairy steps in and reminds him that if he wants to be real, he has to be good. During his journey home, Pinocchio meets Mr. Big, the producer; Fox, the trickster; Mr. Bunksterburger, the carnival owner; and the whale, who gives Pinocchio a taste of his own bullying medicine. Through his adventures, Pinocchio learns that respecting other people, telling the truth and being good will make his dreams come true. Filled with original music, sing-alongs and interactivity, audiences will enjoy every minute of this show!

RAPUNZEL- Tuesday, August 1st at 10:30 AM

Book and Lyrics by David Crane and Marta Kauffman

Music by Michael Skloff

Commissioned and Originally Produced by THEATREWORKS/USA

Presented through special arrangement with Music Theatre International (MTI)

From the Emmy-winning team behind the mega-hit television series, "Friends," comes Rapunzel. A familiar tale with a fantastic new spin, it has all of the charm that you'd expect from the minds that have been making the world laugh non-stop for more than two decades.

Forced to live alone in a tower with nothing but her hair and her witch (literally) of a "mother," Rapunzel's sixteenth birthday has come, meaning that she'll be able to see the outside world for the first time, just as her "mother" promised. Scared to let her go, though, the witch reneges. Lucky for Rapunzel a young Prince named Brian happens across her tower and calls out to her, as he's seen the witch do: "Rapunzel! Rapunzel! Let down your hair!" Before the Prince and Rapunzel have their inevitable "happily ever after," though, they're going to have to face the wrath of the witch and a few other hilarious obstacles.
